

Adler Real Estate Fund Acquires Parklane Building

By GlobeSt News Hub

NASHVILLE-The Adler Real Estate Fund has acquired the Parklane Building, an office building measuring 110,000 square feet at 5200 Maryland Way in Brentwood, Tennessee. The fund, operated by Adler Group, has bought the property from Panattoni Development Company.

The property was 91.6% occupied when the sale took place. Matthew L. Adler, Adler Realty Services' president and Adler Group's chief investment officer, represented the buyer, while Crews Johnston, III and Perry Gooch with Cassidy Turley represented the seller in the transaction. For the full story, go to Florida Real Estate Journal.